Aires Acquires Four Q400 Aircraft

Aires of Colombia has signed a firm purchase contract to acquire 4 Bombardier Q400 aircraft from Jeju Air of Korea. Aires will be the first carrier to operate the Q400 in South America.

The first two aircraft (MSN 4119 and 4124) were delivered on July 16th, with Aires entering into a sale and leaseback with Nordic Aviation Capital A/S (NAC) following delivery.

The third aircraft (MSN 4129) is scheduled for delivery in early August, with the final aircraft (MSN 4137) delivering in late August. It is planned that similar sale and leasebacks will be agreed between Aires and NAC.

The transaction was arranged by MDT on behalf of Aires.
